Literacy Update:

We are working through our mapping unit. We have learned about the 7 continents, latitude and longitude, cardinal and intermediate directions, maps keys, grides and scales. We will wrap this up after spring break. Our next unit will be an author study of Cynthia Rylant.

Math Update

We finished money with an assessment yesterday. The test will be coming home today in Friday Folders. Next week we being a focus on multiplication/repeated addition.

Book Orders

Orders are due by April 3rd. Online orders can be easily done with our class code: MHLPM @
